Mr. O'Brien took his car and went to the home of Aunt Rhoda Higgins Sunday and took her to her daughter, Mrs. Neil Sanders, near the Pine school house, for a day's visit the first time for nearly a year; also the first time she ever rode in an auto. She is past 80 years. She enjoyed the ride.

Mrs. Arthur Harter and children went to Ithaca Sunday to spend a week with the former's parents.

The old folks' day had to be postponed for the last Sunday in June, on account of children's day being next Sunday, so please remember that autos will be ready to go and get all old folks that have not been able to get to church. Easy chairs will be provided in the front part of the church for their comfort. All who will come and those who want to bring some one, please send word to some friend, if possible to the church, next Sunday morning and arrangements will be made to accommodate all. Please remember the date—June 24th—at the morning service. Everybody is welcome.
